

The Modern CIO: Bridging Technology and Business for Digital Success

IDC CIO Summit 2025 is a unique event that brings together IT leaders responsible for the digital transformation of the largest organisations in Poland and around the world.

The 2025 edition will take place in the heart of Warsaw, at the Bellotto Hotel, where for 2 days we will discuss technology and business best practices, challenges, trends and innovations among key decision makers.

KEY REASONS TO ATTEND?

- Data and the latest insights from IDC analysts in Poland and Europe.
- Debates and speeches with representatives of business, public administration and leaders of the technological revolution.
- Establishing valuable business relationships.
- Thematic panels and discussion roundtables led by industry experts
- Networking, exchange of knowledge and experience among CIOs
- Workshops led by prominent IDC analysts
- Possibility of individual business consultation with an IDC analyst

STANDARD TICKET INCLUDE:

 Full access to event's sessions* (*without Gala Dinner)	 Trends and Insights from IDC's analysts
 Networking	 Possibility of joining the event stage as a speaker connect table co-moderator.
 Attractive location and catering of 5* hotel in the heart of Warsaw	 Access to event's presentations and materials

KEY TOPICS OF THE 2025 EDITION

 The evolving role of the CIO in business leadership	 Competences of the future	 Redefining business value
 Leadership and management of IT teams	 Data - as a driver of digital transformation	 Artificial intelligence, machine learning - trends, investments, implementation case studs

